

Episode 4 Student Worksheet – Answer Key

Read the following statements and decide which are true (T) and which are false (F).

1. F The government minister was fired because of the questionable passing of permits.
2. T At least 20 complaints were made about the electronic toy.
3. T Employees forced to leave their jobs will get financial compensation.
4. F Because of the referendum results, the wind farm will not be built.
5. F The tiny painting had been hidden from view for over 100 years.

Fill in the gaps with vocabulary from the headlines (pay attention to the verb form!).

allegedly to surface

controversial undisclosed to ignite severance resignation sweeping

A major tech company is facing backlash after a controversial decision to give severance packages to hundreds of employees. The sweeping move was allegedly made for undisclosed financial reasons. The sudden resignation of the CEO has only fueled speculation, especially after an inside source claimed it was due to internal conflicts. The crisis was ignited when leaked memos about planned strikes surfaced.

to back to lay off to disrupt to leak

to fast-track shortfall habitat

to tuck

A construction project, backed by the mayor, has raised concerns among environmentalists. The site is tucked behind a protected wildlife habitat and could severely disrupt the delicate ecosystem. Despite a funding shortfall officials are trying to fast-track the approval process. Documents, recently leaked to the press, reveal that the construction company plans to lay off workers.

Complete the crossword puzzle with vocabulary from the discussion.

ACROSS

1. The risks or consequences involved.
3. To go well with or enhance.
8. Talking down to others.
9. Unclear or not specific.

DOWN

2. A state's authority to govern itself.
4. Slightly; by a small amount.
5. Protective measures.
6. A subtle difference in meaning or tone.
7. Not altered or censored.
8. Clearness or ease of understanding.

Decide whether each of the following words is American or British English and fill in the chart. Then write its equivalent in the other variety of English.

- |              |            |            |                     |              |
|--------------|------------|------------|---------------------|--------------|
| 1. apartment | 2. biscuit | 3. garbage | 4. truck            | 5. movie     |
| 6. nappy     | 7. chemist | 8. line    | 9. shopping trolley | 10. vacation |

American English	British English
1. apartment	1. flat
2. cookie	2. biscuit
3. garbage	3. rubbish
4. truck	4. lorry
5. movie	5. film
6. diaper	6. nappy
7. pharmacy	7. chemist
8. line	8. queue
9. shopping cart	9. shopping trolley
10. vacation	10. holiday

Fill in the gaps with few, little, fewer, or less.

There are few social media platforms that truly influence global trends, but even fewer are seeing growth compared to last year. Creators often have little time to keep up with every new feature, and they report having even less time now than before. In terms of viral content, few trends last more than a week, and analysts say that even fewer are original ideas. Users are showing little interest in overly polished content, while engagement on such posts is now significantly less than it was a year ago.

Answer the following questions about “The Speckled Band”.

1. What was Helen Stoner’s sister wearing on the night in question? A night-dress.
2. What happened to Helen Stoner one month ago? She got engaged.
3. What happened in the night, which made Helen Stoner seek help? She heard a low whistle.
4. Where are Holmes and Watson going to take the train? To Stoke Moran.
5. Does the stranger at the door exude positive or negative energy? Negative energy.

Describe a strange, quirky, or unexpected item you have in your bag.